

A Tabular Comparison of the 1647 WSC and the 1695 Baptist Catechism

- Major differences in wording (e.g., whole sentences or phrases not found in the other confession) are highlighted in red.
- Minor differences in wording (e.g., additional words or alternative phrasings) are highlighted in blue.
- Trivial differences (e.g., 'to' versus 'unto', capitalization, punctuation) are not highlighted.

Note: The line between 'major' and 'minor' differences is a fine one and in some cases I've had to make a somewhat subjective judgement about the significance of certain points of divergence. If you think I've made a bad call at any point, drop me a note with a supporting argument.
